Ty Cooper named Head Coach: Moose Jaw Warriors U15AA and Global Sport Academy Coach

Moose Jaw Minor Hockey and Global Sport Academy proudly announce the addition of Ty Cooper as Head Coach of the U15AA Warriors.

[Moose Jaw, SK] - [April 3, 2024] - With an impressive background in coaching and a passion for developing both players and individuals, Cooper brings a wealth of experience coaching elite minor hockey in both the U.S. and Alberta. His passion and dedication to excellence will undoubtedly benefit the athletes who work with him on the Warriors U15AA team, within the Moose Jaw Minor Hockey Association and within the Global Sport Academy offered at both Holy Trinity and the Prairie South School Divisions.

Cooper's journey in coaching began early. He started as a coach at the Banff Hockey School where he quickly advanced to lead instructor for various age groups on the development side. His abilities were evident as he continued to coach teams in Colorado and various elite teams from U15 through to U18 across Alberta, most recently with the U17AAA Calgary Royals and Hockey Alberta for the Prospects Cup.

Throughout his coaching career, Cooper has had success at every level he has coached including leading teams to championship titles and bringing them to provincial events. His coaching philosophy centres around not just achieving results on the ice, but also instilling values that transcend the game and set up players with skills beyond the ice. These values strongly align with the goals of Moose Jaw Minor Hockey and the Global Sport Academy program.

“We have worked with Ty over the years in different capacities and we knew off the hop Ty aligned with the philosophy of Global Sport Academy. We are pumped to have him join our team in full and to represent the Warriors U15AA team and Moose Jaw Minor as bench boss” said Paul Bradley, CEO of Village Sports, “his approach to the science of coaching, analytics, his preparation, and his ability to create relationships and communicate with his players are the reason he has continued to climb the coaching ladder year over year and why were are fortunate to bring him in with our partner Moose Jaw Minor. Ty is so passionate about hockey he is leaving his career as an engineer to work with the Warriors U15AA and Global.”

“Moose Jaw Minor Hockey is extremely fortunate to have Ty join our U15AA program” said Lloyd Friesen, Executive Director of Moose Jaw Minor Hockey. “This has been in the works for some time; and to have this kind of leadership and experience leading our young men in the game of hockey and life, reaches another level for any Minor Hockey program at this age level.”

As a coach, Cooper is known for his relentless pursuit of improvement and his unwavering passion for the game. He is HP1 qualified and is a life-long learner. Whether on the ice and off, he is constantly studying, planning and refining his coaching methods to ensure the success and development of his players.

“We are thrilled to welcome Ty Cooper to Global Sport Academy Moose Jaw,” said Curtis Pereverzoff, Area-Manager at Global Moose Jaw. “I was fortunate to get to coach with and against Ty in the past so I know what we are getting for the Moose Jaw hockey community”.

Global Sport Academy and Moose Jaw Minor are proud partners designing programs and opportunities so students can pursue their passion in a program that is supported by academic and athletic leadership - within the regular school timetable. Global Sport Academy runs programs for Grades 9-12 for student-athletes in the Prairie South School Division and Holy Trinity Catholic School Division and a morning academy for Grades 4-8 before the school day.
